(c) whether it is also a fact that because of the worst financial condition and natural calamities, Orissa is also not able to utilise fund from 1999-2000; and

(d) if so, what is the action plan of the Central Government to help these financially weak States?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI ANANDRAO VITHOBA ADSUL): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. Due to implementation of the 5th Central Pay Commission's recommendations for its employees certain States including the State of Orissa, faced acute financial crunch and had resorted to diversion of specific purposes assistance received from the Government of India to overcome their liquidity problem. It is not possible to specify the quantum of diversion.

(d) Beside providing all feasible assistance to financially weaker States, Government of India pursuant to the recommendation of Eleventh Finance Commission, a scheme called Fiscal Reforms Facility 2000-05 has been created for incentivising the States to undertake Medium Term Fiscal Reforms Programmes (MTFRP). To this end an incentive fund of Rs. 10,607 crore has been earmarked to encourage all the States to implement the monitorable fiscal reforms programme. Additional amounts by way of additional open market borrowing etc. is also considered, if the State concerned has a structural adjustment burden necessitating voluntary retirement/severance payments for downsizing the PSEs.

Government of India has also formulated a debt Swap Scheme which aims at utilizing the current low interest rate regime to enable States to prepay expensive loans from Government of India in the past, with current low coupon bearing Small Savings and Open Market Loans.
